By SCOTT HOLTZMAN

Group changes are in the air again. Gene Clark is returning to The Byrds as David Crosby exits at Jim McGuinn's request. Crosby and McGuinn have never gotten along too well. Crosby plans to live on his boat in Florida. Al Kooper, vocalist, organist and arranger for The Blues Project, has left to form his own group. Country Joe MacDonald has left Country Joe and The Fish. They're having a hard time getting reorganized since Joe was chief composer, arranger and lead singer. Their new single is called "Janis" and was written by MacDonald for Port Arthur's Janis Joplin, lead singer with Big Brother and The Holding Company. What's left of the group will be called The Incredible Fish. Sean Bonniwell, singer-writer-arranger for The Music Machine (he also wrote a column in this space once, if you remember) has split with the entire group and is busy forming Bonniwell's Music Machine, to debut in a few months. Houston's Bedbugs have become The Primrose Circus and have a national release on Mira called "P.S. Call Me Lulu." They had a big ad in Billboard and are starting to grab onto the FM listeners locally.

Believe it or not, I love "Wild Honey" by The BB-5. It's their best since "Good Vibrations." I'm still not sold on "Smiley Smile" even though people still tell me to listen again. I do like "Wind Chimes" but that's about it. Jerry Miller tells me that since my columns about Elvis, KNUZ has had more requests than ever for his records. Sock it to 'em, Jer.

The new Monkee LP cover is excellent artwork. If you remember correctly, they won KILT's "Tournament of Stars" last year, defeating Paul Revere by 1,400 to 732. Elvis only lost out by a slim margin to The Raiders. Those returning from last year are The Beatles, Stones, Animals, Supremes, Beach Boys, Elvis, Raiders and Monkees. New additions are Neil Diamond, Jimi Hendricks, Doors, Aretha, Young Rascals, Bee Gees, Sam & Dave, and The Association. You must like this contest since 12,000 of you voted last year. It begins Nov 27.

What a shame Ray Charles messes up "Yesterday" with all of that hoaky talk. The song's too good for that.

Bill Cosby's take-off on Jimi Hendrix' "Purple Haze" is pretty funny.

Seems to get harder and harder to find a record that is worthy of a Sneak. Is that a comment on today's artists or just the calm before the Christmas rush? Hope it's the latter.
